

The patient woman in the kitchen who day by day prepares your meals, 1000 OF THEM EVERY YEAR, has learned to know the value of

NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT

as a labor saver. It is ready for the oven the moment the crust is rolled or the cake pan is greased. NONE SUCH makes as good cake as it does pie. NONE SUCH strips many a worry from the cares of housekeeping as the sale of 15,000,000 packages last year goes to show.

You buy it for 10 cents a package, but its cheapness is the smallest of many merits—it's good to eat.

"MR. DOOLEY" WILL WED A PRETTY CHICAGO GIRL

FINLEY P. DUNNE'S ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

BRIDE-TO-BE FAMOUS BEAUTY

Miss Margaret Abbott is Also Known for Her Excellent Golf Playing.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

CHICAGO, November 27.—"Mr. Dooley" will take a wife.

Chicago friends of Finley Peter Dunne have learned of his engagement to Margaret Abbott, daughter of Mrs. Mary Abbott. Mrs. Abbott and Miss Abbott are now in New York, where Mr. Dunne resides.

Miss Abbott, who formerly lived in Chicago, of late years has made her home in Paris, where she recently achieved fame by winning a prize in the woman's handicap game at the international golf matches.

Miss Abbott is tall and graceful. Her complexion is brilliant, and her hair ash blond. Her picture appeared not long ago in a magazine as a type of "an American beauty."

Dunne's Newspaper Work.

Mr. Dunne, before he achieved fame by his writings about the philosopher of "Amos McGarry," was a reporter on various Chicago newspapers. He achieved special success in reporting baseball games.

Instead of building up an amplification of the score, he would put a dash of humor into his copy, and would use odd and racy words. This work took, and Mr. Dunne fascinated the fans. Later he became an editorial writer, and for a time was managing editor of the Chicago Journal.

Mr. Dunne's "Dooley" letters began with local topics as themes. They were prompted by the amusing but wise sayings of a lovable old Irishman, the late James McGarry, who kept a bar in Dearborn street. McGarry, a bartender, was the foil for McGarry's wit.

From his subjects Mr. Dunne branched into those of a national and international character. His reputation has reached the English reading public in all parts of the world.

BROOKLYN MAN'S INCOME.

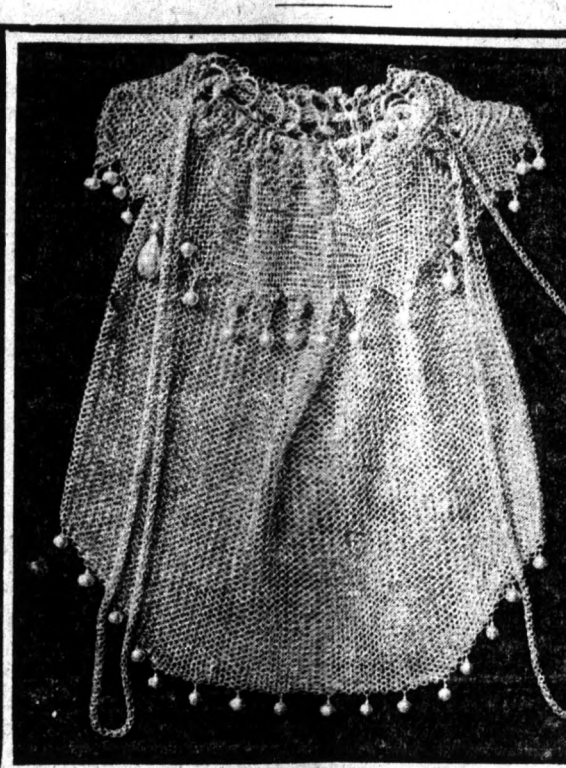

Wife Allows Him Ten Cents of Each Dollar He Earns.

NEW YORK, November 27.—Thomas Hanley, thirty-five years old, is in trouble. His wife charged him with intoxication. It appears that it is due to Hanley's labors that the family lives. He has changed places with his wife in the usual domestic relation and does the washing that his better half takes in. Hanley told Magistrate Furlong that his wife took in from $12 to $15 worth of washing for the neighbors every week and that she compelled him to do the washing, hang out the clothes, bring them in, and then iron them. For his part, he said he turned said that he got 10 cents on every dollar that came into the house.

"But how do you manage to get drunk on 10 cents a day?" asked the court.

"I don't," replied Hanley. "I save up my 10 cents until I get enough, and then I go out and get a 'beat'."

FASHION DECREES A COSTLY PURSE.

A new concept of Dame Fashion is to add precious stones in the form of pendants to the tiny purses of silver and gold which have been so popular for a year or two. The one illustrated is of gold with a fringe of pearls.
